Dear Mr. Weisberg:

This morning Professor David R. Wrone of our History Department delivered several packages containing materials from your archives to our James Albertson Learning Resources Center and deposited them with me.

These include Batch "D" of CIA documents recently released and numbering several hundred pages; a copy of the unexpurgated volume listing the Warren Commission Documents in the National Archives; an extensive set of Silver Shirt publications, including pamphlets, books, and brochures; some miscellaneous correspondence of D. D. Mayne and his diary; several issues of IN Fact newsletter; thirteen negatives relating to the Nazi coup attempt in Chile; a volume of the 1936 Senate Hearings on the violations of free speech; three reels of tape recordings relating to the critics of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and its investigation and one reel of the Roosevelt Hotel Conference and associated recordings which will be individually dubbed on cassette (a copy of which you will receive); a number of pages relating to the same type of material held by other individuals which we will xerox and return to you as per your request; several letters describing the contents of the tapes; and a few miscellaneous items.

These materials constitute a valuable addition to our archives and will be especially helpful in providing students and faculty, as well as the general public, the documentary record necessary to form an objective view of public issues.

On behalf of the citizens of Wisconsin and the faculty of the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, I wish to express the deepest appreciation for your gift of these valuable documents and assure you that they will be carefully processed into our collections and preserved so that future generations can utilize them.

Sincerely,

Burdette W. Eagon
Dean
